

JobTIPS

KEYPOINTS- Following Up By Phone

When you contact a potential employer by phone, here are the points to include in your conversation:

1. First, thank them again for giving you the opportunity to interview.
2. Express your interest in the job.
3. Politely ask when they might make a decision about who they are going to hire for the position.
4. Thank them again for their time.