JobTIPS

✓ Key Points - After Submitting Job Application

What happens next?

1. It is okay to contact the company 3 full business days after you turned in your application.

2. You can contact the company by phone or email.

3. Even though you might feel frustrated because the company has not called or email you, do not show your frustration when you contact the company.

4. Before you make the phone call, write down and practice what you are going to say ahead of time.
