

Initiating Conversations

Stop and look before you start a conversation:

- Who is the other person?
- What is the other person doing at this moment?
- Are they available to talk, or do they seem busy? (Busy = talking to someone else, working on a task, leaving the area, on the phone, etc.)
- Depending on who this person is, what can I plan to say to them to start a conversation?