

Interrupting Others scenario card

L3

You arrive at your boss's office for a scheduled appointment. The door is open, but he is on the phone.

What should you do?

Interrupting Others scenario card

L3

A co-worker is busy working, but you really want to tell him about a new CD you got yesterday.

What should you do?

Interrupting Others scenario card

L3

The fax machine has jammed and you do not know how to fix it. Everyone else is in an office meeting in the conference room.

What should you do?

Interrupting Others scenario card

L3

You are at work. You cannot find the materials you need to do your task. Your co-worker is nearby, and he is talking to a customer.

What should you do?

Interrupting Others scenario card

L3

A customer asks you a question and you cannot answer it. You see that your supervisor is talking to another employee nearby.

What should you do?

Interrupting Others scenario card

L3

You work at a kennel. One of the dogs is lying down in his kennel and is not getting up when you call his name. You are worried that the dog is sick. When you go to the supervisor's office, his door is closed and you hear him speaking to someone inside. What should you do?

Interrupting Others scenario cardL3

You are trying to finish an assignment at school, but you have questions about it. Your instructor is talking to another student about his plans for the weekend.

What should you do?

Interrupting Others scenario cardL3

You are trying to finish an assignment at school, but you have questions about it. Your instructor is talking to another student about his assignment.

What should you do?

Interrupting Others scenario cardL3

☺ While working in the kitchen, you see a UFO land on top of your boss's car in the parking lot! Aliens are marching out of the spaceship and coming toward the door. Your boss has asked to not be disturbed because he is on an important phone call.

What should you do?